

Have you considered a charitable gift?

A great way to support the ministries in your community is to consider how you can leave a legacy through proper gift planning or what we call LIFESTYLE GIVING.

LIFESTYLE GIVING is a way for you to simplify your tax burden, multiply your gifts and glorify God with the assets you have been entrusted.

Important questions to ask - Do you have a will? If so, is it current? Have you considered charitable gifts in your will?

LIFESTYLE GIVING will help you maximize your God given resources for both family and ministry. An effective estate plan can help you come along side the ministries you love and support them for generations to come, to ensure God's work will continue. CEF offers estate planning guides, call our office if you would like more information.
